provide the vehicle through which God will fill the earth with His glory. Strictly speaking it is only humans who can truly reveal the glory of the LORD. The mountains, stars and other items of God's natural creation, beautiful as they are, cannot fully reveal God's character. What is God's Master Plan? - Lesson 1 - Bible Education This passage tells of the day when heaven comes down to earth and God dwells among men. It's a time of no more sin or curse because the first things will pass away, and God will make all things new (21:4-5). God's plans for humanity's restoration from sin, corruption, and death are glorious. But sadly, many people won't ever be a part of it.
