101: On Becoming Your ... Dabrowski's theory of Positive Disintegration is a very dynamic, applicable and powerful theory of personality development, that, if eventually widely accepted in the mainstream, has sweeping implications to how psychology approaches people in turmoil, as well as how people in turmoil perceive their situation. Amazon.com: Dabrowski's Theory of Positive Disintegration ... The theory of positive disintegration (TPD) by Kazimierz Dąbrowski is a theory of personality development. Unlike mainstream psychology, Dąbrowski's theoretical framework views psychological tension and anxiety as necessary for growth. These "disintegrative" processes are therefore seen as "positive", whereas people who fail to go through positive disintegration may remain for their entire lives in a state of "primary integration", lacking true individuality. Positive disintegration - Wikipedia It's an honor to have this opportunity to share my work about Dabrowski's theory of positive disintegration (TPD) in the first issue of GHF Dialogue. TPD is a theory of human development and personality that was created by Kazimierz Dabrowski, a Polish psychiatrist and psychologist. It's a complex developmental theory, and a full explanation is beyond the scope of this column, but there are some recommended readings at the end of this piece.
