review for your TEAS examination, you have worked with calculations with only one operation. For example, you worked with only addition, only subtraction, only multiplication and only division, however, you have to also know how to perform several basic arithmetic operations in one calculation problem. Arithmetic Operations with Rational Numbers: TEAS ... The Nursing program here just needs you to show math proficiency, which translates into either a passing grade in college algebra I or a 76 on the accuplacer. There were 12 questions on the math portion of the accuplacer so i guess i missed by 1 or 2 last time. My plan is to hire a tutor to get me the 76 and save me from 3 semesters of math.
