Reason Within God S Stars God made numberless stars to illustrate the outcome of his free, sovereign, electing grace, namely, 'a multitude which no man can number'. To show us the mercy and judgement of God. He made 'the moon and stars to rule by night'. Why? Because 'his mercy endureth for ever' (Psalm 107:1). The stars are a sign that this is still the day of grace. Ten Reasons why God made the Stars | Evangelical Times So why did God bother to make the stars? God made the stars to impress us. God made two great lights—the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars. God set them in the vault of the sky to give light on the earth, to govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good. Why Did God Make The Stars? - Words For The Kingdom Part of the Explore the Film series. “We have some purposes given for the stars...to mark time, to rule over the night, to be for signs and seasons.”. - Danny Faulkner, Astronomer at Chino Valley, Arizona. Our sense of the passage of time is based on our relationship with the sun, moon, and stars. God put these celestial bodies in place on the fourth day of creation as providers of energy, sources of light, and consistent timekeepers. 12. The Purpose of the Stars - Is Genesis History?
